Revised July 2020

LIBRARY DIRECTOR PERFORMANCE EVALUATION POLICY

Why Evaluate?

The purpose of this procedure is to improve communication between the Library Board and the Library Director, to improve job performance, to aid in professional development, to improve library service to the community, and to encourage and reward effective library administration.

Who Evaluates?

Evaluation of the Library Director is the responsibility of the Library Board. Selection and termination of the Library director, as well as salary/merit increases continue to be the responsibilities of the library board. The Library board may consult with the City manager, member of the community, and the library staff for additional perspective, as well as the library Director. Self-evaluation should be in integral part of the evaluation procedure.

When to Evaluate?

Informal evaluation should occur spontaneously through the year. Formal evaluations will occur each spring, prior to the adoption of the library budget.

What to Evaluate?

Evaluation will be based on the duties and responsibilities as outlines in the Library Director job description, which is approved by the library board.

How to Evaluate?

1. In the month prior to a formal evaluation, the Library board should receive a written self-evaluation from the Library Director.
2. In the month prior to a formal evaluation, the board may elect to consult the City Manager, member of the community and the library staff.
3. In the month prior to a formal evaluation, Board members will submit their completed performance evaluation forms to the Board President.
4. Based on the above perspectives, the President will write a formal evaluation and submit to the board for approval.
5. The Library Director may elect to agree or disagree with the evaluation and attach written comments to the evaluation.
6. The evaluation and written comments (if any) will be submitted to the Library Board for a formal approval.
7. A copy of the evaluation will be placed in the Library Director's file at City Hall.

MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY

Objective of Selection:

Within the limitations of space and budget, the library selects materials which meet the educational, informational, and recreational needs of the citizens of the community. It is an objective of the library to provide a resource where the individual can examine many points of view and make his or her own decisions. Materials selection attempts to provide items which will facilitate informal self-education of all the people in the community.

Responsibility of Selection:

The responsibility of selection lies with the staff and the library within their areas of responsibility. The ultimate responsibility for selection lies with the Library Director, who operates within the framework of policies determined by the Library Board.

General Criteria:

1. Relevance to community interest
2. Current significance
3. Attention of critics, reviews and the general public
4. Number and nature of requests from public
5. Common sense
6. Reputability of author and publisher
7. Suitability of format for library use

It is important with limited staff to review each item which the library selects for addition to the collection. Therefore, selection of materials is accomplished primarily through reviewing periodicals hand-on examination. Particular importance is given to reviews which are directed to the library market, such as Library Journal, Publishers Weekly, New York Times, Booklist, Horn Book, School Library Journal and other reviewing media. An item will also be purchased if there is sufficient patron interest and request for the title.

Materials with an emphasis on sex or containing profane language should not be automatically excluded if the item presents a true-life situation which deals with characters and situations realistically presented. This library has a comprehensive reading public which it has an obligation to serve, the same as any other patron. "Best Seller" lists are constantly being referred to by many of our patrons, so the library should strive to maintain at least one copy of best sellers, even though sometimes these books do not meet the selection standards set forth in the policy. Responsibility of the reading habits of children rests with the parent or legal guardian; therefore, selection should not be inhibited by children. The library will not knowingly purchase material which has been declared illegal by the court of Michigan or the Country.

With regards to books dealing with sex education, the library will purchase books written for the adult, young adult and child. The materials selected for these groups should have a minimum of two reviews backing up the library's selection. Recognized book lists such as Best Books for Young Adults and Notable Children's Books are also used for consideration, if possible, the librarian should personally review each title keeping in mind the needs of community served. The letter designation (E, J or YA) on materials does not limit its use. It is not intended to restrict readership to an age or interest group. Since the level of sophistication varies within each community, materials for the less mature and poorer reader, as well as for the person already comfortable with adult materials should be provided. We support the American Library Association's assertion that:

The librarian who would restrict the access of minors to materials and services because of actual or suspected parental objection should bear in mind that he is not in loco parentis in his or her position as a librarian.

The American Library Association holds that it is the parent – and only the parent – who may restrict his children—and only his children—from access to library materials and services. The parents who would rather his child did not have access to certain materials should so advise the child.

Auxiliary Collections:

The paperback collection in the library is heavily used. Popular works are selected. The librarian must be familiar with the broad range of current adult, young adult and Juvenal titles.

Paperbacks are purchased most frequently through publisher's pre-selected lists. Most books are reprints of hardbound titles. However, a great many titles are paperback originals and not reviewed in almost all reviewing sources. Upon examination of paperback titles, if an item is deemed unusable for the collection, it will be given to another library, sold in a book sale, or discarded.

The library has a responsibility to provide patrons with factual information about the religions of the world. Materials whose sole purpose is persuasive or solicitous for a religious group will not be selected. The library will attempt to have religious literature of an authentic historical and/or education content. These books must meet the general criteria set for in this policy.

Summary:

The library's aim is to present the community with a well-balanced collection that meets the educational, informational, and recreational needs of the citizens of the community. This is done with careful consideration keeping in mind the selection of high quality, informative, and readable materials within the library's budget, space and criteria set forth in this policy.

Request for Reconsideration of Library Material:

If a patron finds any portion of the library's collection objectionable, he or she may file a formal request for reconsideration of the materials by completing a Request for Reconsideration of Library Material form, which can be requested at the circulation desk. A completed form will be reviewed by two staff members and the director who will respond to the patron in written form describing the action the library will take in regard to the challenge. The Materials Selections Policy will act as the basis for the response. If a patron is not satisfied with the staff response, the request for reconsideration may be taken to the Board of Trustees. The Board will decide what course of action to take.

MATERIAL WITHDRAW (WEEDING) POLICY

The library's collection of books, audio visual materials and other materials cannot be built in quantity or quality solely by the selection of new materials. There must also be a constant, on-going, evaluation of the collection which inevitably will result in the discarding of outdated materials, worn-out items, and the replacement of necessary titles. Continuous appraisal of the collection is essential and every bit as important as the initial selection for the inclusion.

Discarding or "weeding" of materials is the way to ensure the best and most economical utilization of space in the library. "Weeding" is selection in reverse. Just as all materials which are added to the library's collection are expected to be useful for the people in the community by which it is served, so to should they be withdrawn if they cease to serve that purpose. It enhances the reputation for reliability of the collection and assures the orderly growth of a quality collection.

Criteria for Discarding:

- Material out of date
- Worn out or in need of mending
- Duplicate copies
- Not used (3-5 years)
- Books which have ceased to fulfill their purpose in the library

As a general rule, material to be discarded will not be rebound if it meets the criteria for discarding. If, however, the item is listed in the current edition of the Standard Public Library Catalogs published by Wilson, regardless of its circulation history, the item will be kept, rebound, or if still in print, reordered.

Disposal of Withdrawn Materials:

After materials have been withdrawn, they will be disposed of in one of three ways:

1. Gifts to other libraries:

Materials in good condition which are found to be inappropriate for our collection, no longer needed, or of a special research nature be given to other libraries. Local libraries will receive first considerations for such gifts.

2. Book Sale:

UNATTENDED CHILDREN POLICY

The Hillsdale Community Library defines “Unattended” as:

A child, age 8 and under, left alone in the library building without a parent, legal guardian or responsible care giver over the age of 16 adequately supervising them while inside the library building.

The happiness and safety of young children left alone at the library is a serious concern. The library is a public building available for the use of all Michigan residents. Because it is a place where children gather, it may attract people whose interest in children is not entirely wholesome. Library staff cannot know if children are leaving the building with parents or strangers. For the protection and wellbeing of children who enjoy the library, the following policy has been established. Children ages 8 years old and younger must be attended to and adequately supervised by a responsible adult or mature, responsible adolescent over the age of 16, if their parent or legal guardian is not present. Children ages 8 years and older maybe use the library unattended, subject to the rules of behavior and service policies set forth by the Hillsdale Community Library.

The Hillsdale Community Library has authorized a 3-Step guideline to assist the Library staff in case of:

1. Unattended children 8 years old and under with no parent, adult or responsible caregiver over the age of 16.
2. Behavior problems of ALL children up to the age of 18.
3. Any child(ren) under the age of 18 who are left at the library at closing time.

STEP 1: The supervisor on duty obtains information from the child as to how they arrived at the library (i.e.: walking, dropped off by a parent or school bus, etc.). The supervisor will try and obtain telephone information from the child in order to contact an adult on behalf of the child. If telephone information can be obtained, the supervisor will proceed to STEP 2. If telephone information cannot be obtained, the supervisor shall use their discretion as to whether or not to send the child home alone. If it is determined to not send the child home, the supervisor will proceed to STEP 3.

STEP 2: The supervisor and one other staff member will wait at the library facility with the child a responsible adult arrives. The supervisor will then explain the problem and library policy to the adult. The supervisor will also obtain the adult’s name, address and phone number for completion of an incident report. If a responsible adult has not arrived within 15 minutes after closing, the supervisor will proceed to STEP 3.

STEP 3: The supervisor will call 911 and report an “abandoned child” at the library and request police assistance. Staff will stay with the child until police arrive. The supervisor will take the name of the responding officer for the completion of the incident report.

ADDING OR AMENDING LIBRARY POLICIES POLICY

Substantive changes to library policy must follow a clearly defined and publicly visible process.

- I. Any member of the Hillsdale Community Library Board of Trustees, or of the Community Library staff, or of the City Council, or of the community served by the Library, may request that the Board consider adding a new policy to this manual, or amending an existing policy. As a rule, the Library Director should take a lead role in formulating policy proposals for the Board's consideration.
- II. A proposal to add or amend a policy must be
 - a. Submitted in writing by a member of the Board at least seven (7) business days prior to the meeting at which the proposal will be considered.
 - b. Must be on the public agenda at least three (3) business days prior to said meeting.
 - c. The full text of the proposal must be published along with the agenda.

The Board is then free to discuss and vote on the proposal. The Board should not vote on any proposal unless it has been submitted following the above process and timeline, and duly published alongside the agenda.

- III. The Board may only vote to accept a policy proposal as it was published prior to the meeting. If, after discussion, the Board determines that revisions to a proposal would be necessary to secure approval, they may simply vote down the proposal, or do one of the following:
 1. During the meeting, come to an agreement about the necessary revisions, and ask the Board member who originally made the proposal to submit a revised version prior to a future meeting.
 2. Appoint a sub-committee to determine the necessary revisions, and request that the sub-committee submit a revised proposal prior to a future meeting. Sub-committees should consist of at least one but no more than two Board members, and may include the Director, another member of the library staff, or member(s) of the community.

Revisions to a proposal should be submitted and published following the same timeline as any proposal.

- IV. Depending on the nature of the proposal, the Board may also elect to postpone a final vote until the proposal has been reviewed by the City Attorney. It is recommended that all library policies be reviewed with the City Attorney prior to the board meeting and public posting.
- V. Once changes to the policy manual have been accepted by a majority vote of the Board, it is the responsibility of the Library Director to ensure that the updated manual is published within eight (8) days of the meeting at which the changes were approved, and that public notice is made that an updated manual has been published. Public notice should be posted
 - a. To the library website
 - b. The City of Hillsdale Website
 - c. Printed notice should be posted in the Library for a minimum of ten (10) days.

- VI. This policy applies only to substantive changes to library policy, and not to minor edits to the manual such as corrections, updates, adjustments to formatting, etc., which may be freely undertaken by the Director or a designated staff member. Notice of such edits should be included in the agenda of the next meeting of the Board, but do not need to be voted on for approval. In such cases no public announcement of edits to the manual is required.
- VII. The responsibility for updating the agenda rests with the Library Director, or in the Director's absence with the acting administrative officer of the Board. Part of that responsibility includes communicating with the City to ensure that changes to the agenda are published in a timely fashion. If for any reason an item cannot or should not be added to the agenda, it is the Director's responsibility to immediately inform the Board, in writing, of the impediment. The Agenda procedures are as follows:
- a. All agenda discussion items are sent to the director seven (7) business days prior to the meeting.
 - b. The agenda must be posted on the library website and city website three (3) business days prior to the meeting.
